

Youtubers create videos and upload these videos to YouTube for their fans.

Viewers watch the videos uploaded for entertainment.

When viewers watch they view ads, which gives both YouTube and the creators a source of income.

