

Virtual Reality

- A screen is placed in front of each eye to eliminate the real world and adjust to the virtual one
- The frame rate is 60 frames per second so that a person is surrounded by the virtual world
- The mobile sensors keep track of where the user is moving

