The College Board: Connecting Students to College Success

The College Board is a not-for-profit membership association whose mission is to connect students to college success and opportunity. Founded in 1900, the association is composed of more than 5,000 schools, colleges, universities, and other educational organizations. Each year, the College Board serves seven million students and their parents, 23,000 high schools, and 3,500 colleges through major programs and services in college admissions, guidance, assessment, financial aid, enrollment, and teaching and learning. Among its best-known programs are the SAT®, the PSAT/NMSQT®, and the Advanced Placement Program® (AP®). The College Board is committed to the principles of excellence and equity, and that commitment is embodied in all of its programs, services, activities, and concerns.

Answers—Section I, Part A

ART HISTORY
SECTION II
Time—120 minutes
9 Questions

This section of the exam contains the following types of essay questions.

- Question 1 is a 30-minute essay question that is not based on slides.
- Questions 2 through 8 are short essay questions based on slides and/or a quotation from a primary source or document.
- Question 9 is a 30-minute essay question that is not based on slides.

Note: This exam uses the chronological designations B.C.E. (before the common era) and C.E. (common era). These labels correspond to B.C. (before Christ) and A.D. (anno Domini), which are used in some art history textbooks.

Directions for Question 1: You have 30 minutes to answer Question 1. Read the question and take a moment to think about what the question asks. You can receive full credit only by answering the question asked. Therefore, spend a few minutes organizing or outlining your response in the blank space provided above the question. Notes in the blank space will not be graded. Be sure to analyze each question carefully and choose appropriate examples. Identify your examples as fully as possible.

1. Cultural attitudes about women are often revealed in art.

   Select and fully identify two works of art that depict one or more women. The works must come from two different cultures, one of which must be from beyond the European tradition. Explain how each work reveals its culture’s attitudes about women. (30 minutes)

STOP

IF YOU FINISH BEFORE TIME IS CALLED,
YOU MAY CHECK YOUR WORK ON QUESTION 1.
DO NOT GO ON TO QUESTION 2 UNTIL YOU ARE TOLD TO DO SO.
Directions for Questions 2-8: The following seven short essay questions are based on slides and/or text. Each question is separately timed and each slide or set of slides will be shown only for the length of time indicated after the question. You are to answer each question in the space provided.

Read the question and take a moment to think about what the question asks. Formulate your answer before you begin to write. You can receive full credit only by answering the question asked.

Note: For questions involving two slides, when you are not asked specifically to name the artists and/or titles of the works, you may refer to the work on the left as (L) and the work on the right as (R).

2. The slide shows a Roman copy of a lost Greek original.
   Name the specific art-historical style of the original. How is the theme of death treated and why? (5 minutes)

   Question 2 -- Slide
   7L. Dying Gaul, Roman copy after the original bronze of c. 220 B.C.E.
       (Vanni / Art Resource, NY)
   7R. Blank

3. The slides show two views of the same fresco cycle in the Palazzo Pubblico in Siena.
   Identify the artist. Explain how the subject and meaning of the fresco cycle relate to its location. (10 minutes)

   Question 3 -- Slides
   8L. Ambrogio Lorenzetti, Sala della Pace (room containing Lorenzetti frescoes of Good and Bad Government), Palazzo Pubblico, Siena, 1338-1339. (Scala / Art Resource, NY)
   8R. Ambrogio Lorenzetti, Allegory of Good Government in the City, fresco in the Sala della Pace, Palazzo Publico, Siena, 1338-1339. (The Bridgeman Art Library)

4. Attribute the painting to an artist you have studied. Justify your attribution by identifying and discussing specific characteristics seen in the painting. (10 minutes)

   Question 4 -- Slide
   9L. Vincent Van Gogh, The Plain at Auvers, 1890.
       (Giraudon / Art Resource, NY)
   9R. Blank
Question 5 -- Slides

10L. Plan of the Palatine Chapel in Aachen, Germany, c. 800 C.E.

10R. Interior of the Palatine Chapel in Aachen, Germany, c. 800 C.E.
(The Octogon with the Emperor’s Box (photo) by German School
(9th century) Aachen Cathedral, Aachen, Germany / Bildarchiv
Steffens / The Bridgeman Art Library)

5. The slides show a plan and an interior view of Charlemagne’s Palatine Chapel in Aachen, circa 800 C.E. The building contains deliberate references to earlier architecture.

Name at least one earlier architectural period referenced in the Palatine Chapel. Identify one significant way in which the Palatine Chapel reinterprets architectural elements of that earlier period and explain why. (10 minutes)

Question 6 -- Slide

(The Metropolitan Museum of Art / Art Resource, NY)

11R. Blank

6. Both the 1950 painting shown in the slide and the quotation below are by the same artist.

“My painting does not come from the easel. . . . I prefer to tack the unstretched canvas to the hard wall or the floor. . . . On the floor I am more at ease. I feel nearer, more a part of the painting, since this way I can walk around it, work from the four sides and literally be in the painting. . . . When I am in my painting, I’m not aware of what I’m doing. . . . I have no fears about making changes, destroying the image, etc., because the painting has a life of its own. I try to let it come through.”

Identify the artist. How does the painting reflect the artist’s description of his process? In your answer, make specific references to both the quotation and the painting. (10 minutes)

Question 7 -- Slide

12L. Madonna and Child (the Morgan Madonna), 12th century.
(The Metropolitan Museum of Art / Art Resource, NY)

12R. Blank

7. Identify the art-historical period of the sculpture. What key characteristics support your placement of the work in the period you have identified? (5 minutes)
8. The Baroque painting shown includes portrayals of both its patron and its artist.

   Name the artist. Explain how the painting served the aims of both the artist and the patron. (10 minutes)

END OF SHORT ESSAY QUESTIONS

Directions for Question 9: You have 30 minutes to answer Question 9. Read the question and take a moment to think about what the question asks. You can receive full credit only by answering the question asked. Therefore, spend a few minutes organizing or outlining your response in the blank space provided above the question. Notes in the blank space will not be graded. Be sure to analyze each question carefully and choose appropriate examples. Identify your examples as fully as possible.

9. Art since the 1960s encompasses a wide variety of approaches.

   Address this variety of approaches through the careful choice and detailed discussion of two works of art made between 1960 and the present. The two works must be by different artists OR in different media. Be sure to fully identify each work. (30 minutes)
