The College Board

The College Board is a not-for-profit membership association whose mission is to connect students to college success and opportunity. Founded in 1900, the association is composed of more than 5,600 schools, colleges, universities and other educational organizations. Each year, the College Board serves seven million students and their parents, 23,000 high schools and 3,800 colleges through major programs and services in college readiness, college admissions, guidance, assessment, financial aid, enrollment, and teaching and learning. Among its best-known programs are the SAT[®], the PSAT/NMSQT[®] and the Advanced Placement Program[®] (AP[®]). The College Board is committed to the principles of excellence and equity, and that commitment is embodied in all of its programs, services, activities and concerns.

ART HISTORY SECTION II

Time—120 minutes

9 Questions

This section of the exam contains the following types of essay questions.

- Question 1 is a 30-minute essay question that is not based on slides.
- Questions 2 through 8 are short essay questions based on slides and/or a quotation from a primary source or document.
- Question 9 is a 30-minute essay question that is not based on slides.

Note: This exam uses the chronological designations B.C.E. (before the common era) and C.E. (common era). These labels correspond to B.C. (before Christ) and A.D. (anno Domini), which are used in some art history textbooks.

Directions for Question 1: You have 30 minutes to answer Question 1. Read the question and take a moment to think about what the question asks. You can receive full credit only by answering the question asked. Therefore, spend a few minutes organizing or outlining your response in the blank space provided above the question. Notes in the blank space will not be graded. Be sure to analyze each question carefully and choose appropriate examples. Identify your examples as fully as possible.

1. Cultures designate sacred space in a variety of ways to accommodate both religious beliefs and practices.

Select and fully identify two examples of sacred spaces from different cultures, one of which must be from beyond the European tradition. Discuss how each space accommodates both religious beliefs and practices within its culture. (30 minutes)

2009 AP[®] ART HISTORY FREE-RESPONSE QUESTIONS

8. In a letter published in 1861, Gustave Courbet declared,

“[An artist must apply] his personal faculties to the ideas and events of the times in which he lives. . . . [A]rt in painting should consist only in the representation of things visible and tangible to the artist. Every age should be respected only by its own artists, that is to say, by the artists who have lived in it. I also maintain that painting is an essentially concrete art form and can consist only of the representation of both real and existing things.”

Identify the nineteenth-century artistic movement associated with the above quotation. Select and fully identify at least one work of art from that movement. Analyze how your example reflects Courbet’s approach to the making of art. In your answer, make specific references to both the text and the selected work. (10 minutes)

END OF SHORT ESSAY QUESTIONS

Directions for Question 9: You have 30 minutes to answer Question 9. Read the question and take a moment to think about what the question asks. You can receive full credit only by answering the question asked. Therefore, spend a few minutes organizing or outlining your response in the blank space provided above the question. Notes in the blank space will not be graded. Be sure to analyze each question carefully and choose appropriate examples. Identify your examples as fully as possible.

9. Self-portraiture provides a wide range of information about the artist in addition to physical appearance.

Choose and fully identify two self-portraits, in any medium, each from a different art-historical period. Analyze how each self-portrait conveys information about the artist and his or her era. (30 minutes)
