END OF PART A

Answers - Section I, Part A
The questions in this part of the examination are based on slides. Each question is separately timed and each slide or set of slides will be shown only for the length of time indicated after the question. YOU ARE TO ANSWER EACH QUESTION IN THE SPACE PROVIDED.

Note: For those questions involving two slides, when you are not asked specifically to name the artists and/or titles of the works, you may refer to the work on the left as (L) and the work on the right as (R).

This examination uses the chronological designations B.C.E. (before the common era) and C.E. (common era). These labels correspond to B.C. (before Christ) and A.D. (anno Domini), which are used in some art history textbooks.

Question 1 -- Slides

(Note: Students do not see this slide information during the exam administration.)

7L. Plan of the ambulatory, abbey church of Saint-Denis, Paris, 1140-1144.

7R. Ambulatory, abbey church of Saint-Denis, Paris, 1140-1144.

(Anthony Scibilia / Art Resource, NY)

1. The following passage was written by Abbot Suger (1081-1151).

Moreover, it was cunningly provided that . . . the old [church] should be equalized, by means of geometrical and arithmetical instruments, with the central nave of the new addition; and, likewise, that the dimensions of the old side aisles should be equalized with the dimensions of the new side aisles, except for that eloquent and praiseworthy extension, [in the form of] a circular string of chapels, by virtue of which the whole [church] would shine with the wonderful and uninterrupted light of most luminous windows, pervading the interior beauty.

The apse of the building Suger is describing is shown in this plan and interior view. What new architectural style does the building introduce? Referring to both the plan and the interior view, explain how the apse reflects Suger's description. (10 minutes)
