

10 Million Students

have signed up for
Official SAT Practice on Khan Academy!

2015

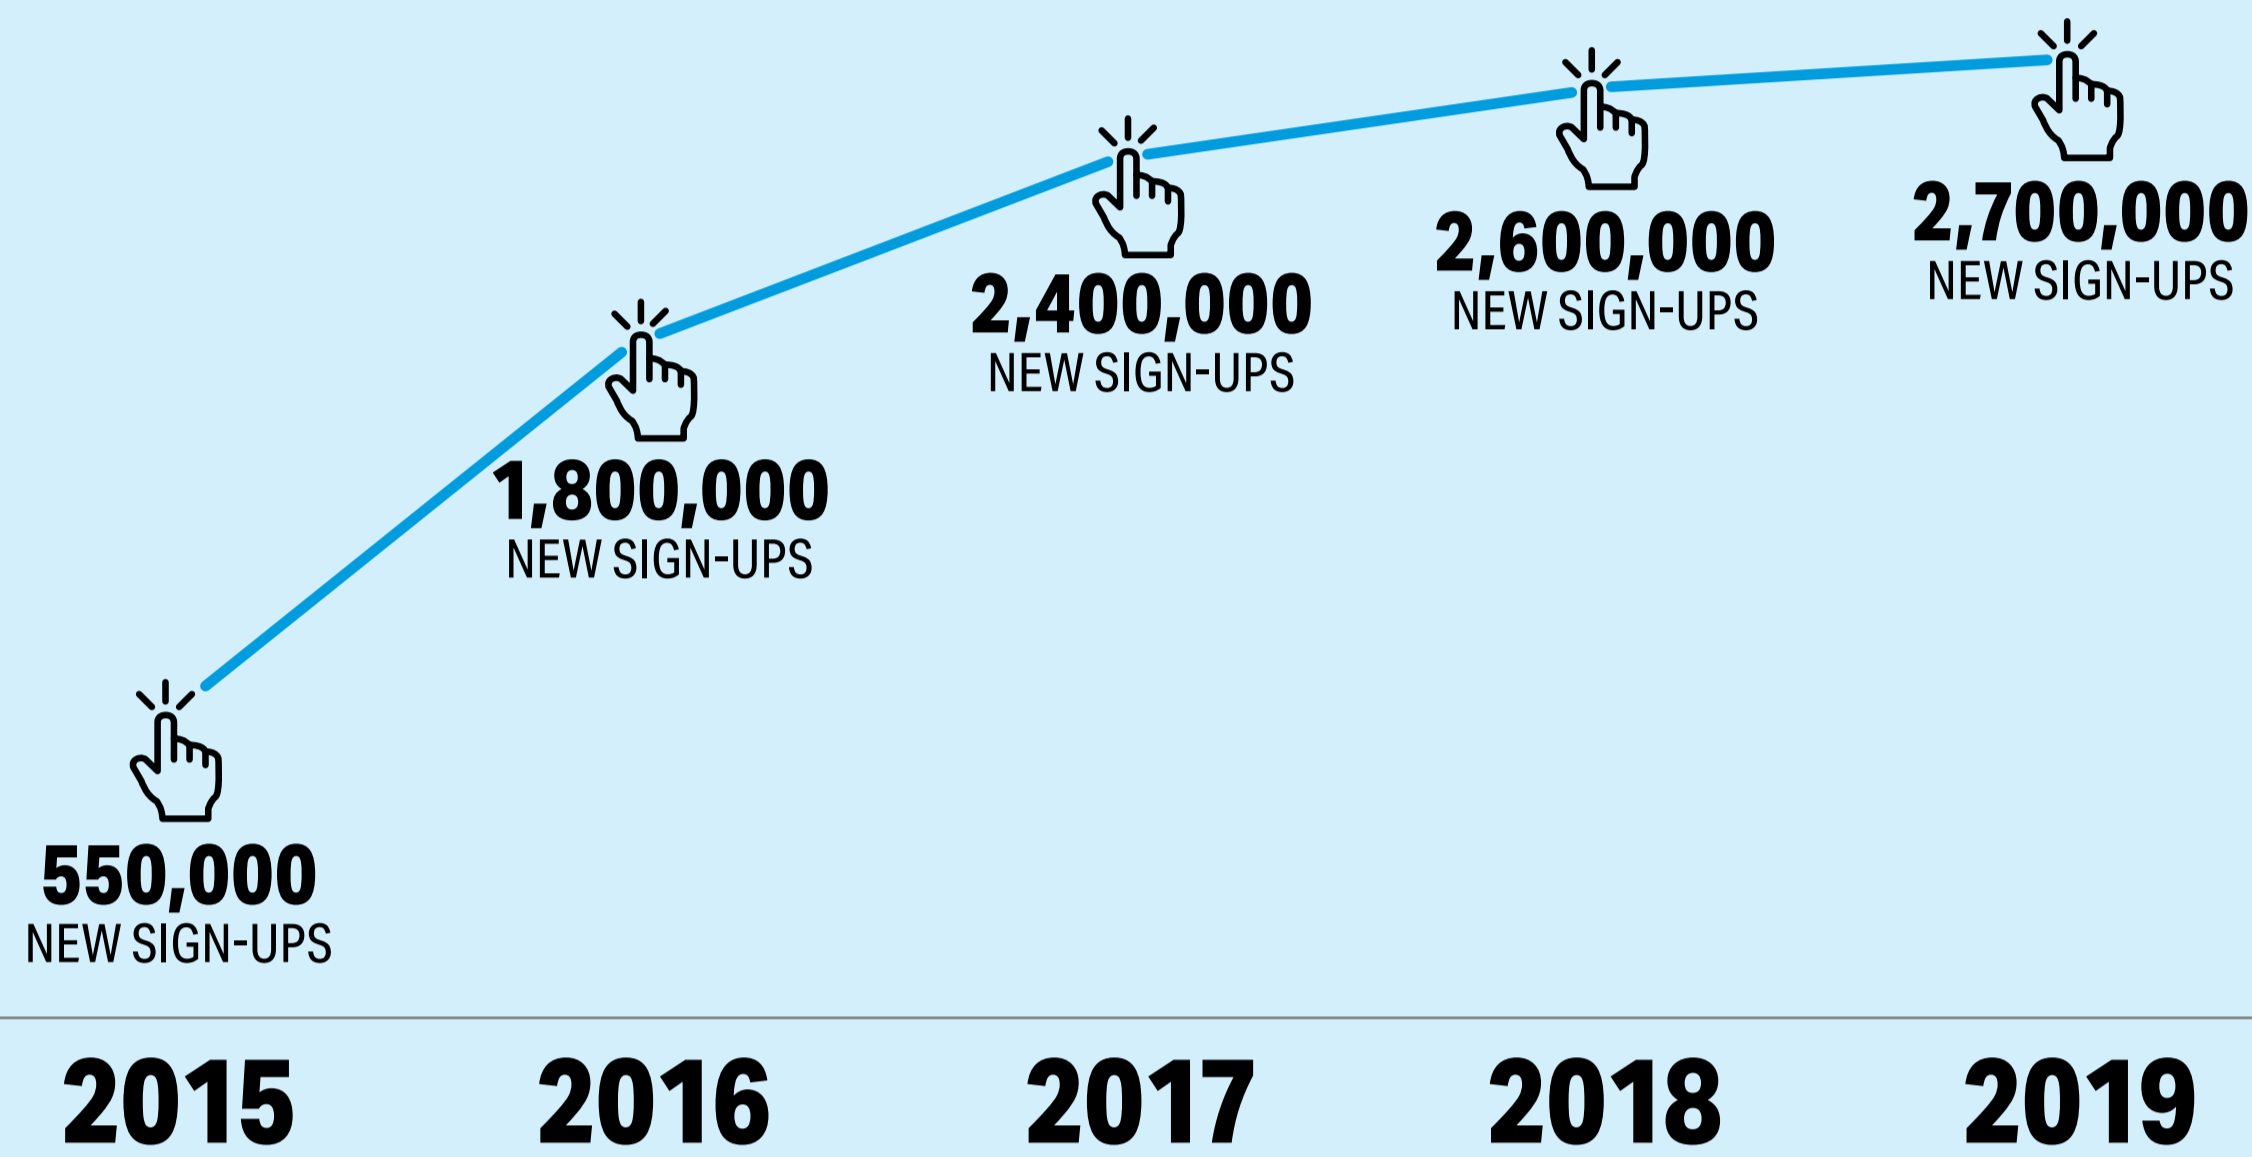

College Board and Khan Academy teamed up in 2015 to make high quality SAT practice free for all students for the first time ever.

Since 2015, the news has spread.

More and more students sign up each year:

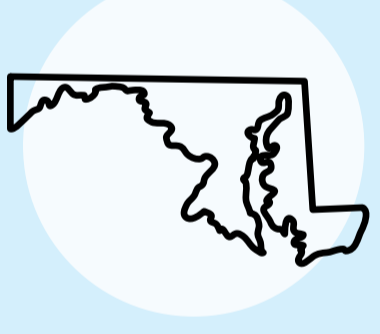

Students have spoken.

Across the country, students are sharing stories about Official SAT Practice's impact:

"All I had before was a dictionary and books I could take from the library. When my teachers introduced me to Khan Academy, I was so happy that it was free."

Matthew, Class of 2017, Texas
200-point score increase

"I liked the personalized study plan. [...] The work is not at all tedious or boring; it's engaging. I would tell other students, who can't seem to focus on studying, to try Khan Academy."

Monica, Class of 2018, Maryland
150-point score increase

"I would tell other students to try the Official SAT Practice before doing any other prep, because the free Official Prep helped me a lot more than the paid classes did."

Nashrah, Class of 2019, California
130-point score increase

"I liked how there was the ability to see if you got a question wrong instantly, as well as receive feedback on why you chose a wrong answer."

Robert, Class of 2020, Ohio
80-point score increase

Students now use Official SAT Practice nearly 4 times more than commercial test prep.

The best way to practice for the SAT is free, personalized, and on Khan Academy.
