

Get ready for the SAT your way. For FREE.

We've got your back with free, flexible ways to prepare that fit your schedule and learning style.

Get familiar and then build your muscle

Take a full-length practice test in Bluebook™. Then head over to My Practice to see how you did, find out what you need to improve, and get lots of practice questions tailored for you.

Level up your skills

Head to Official SAT® Prep on Khan Academy® to sharpen your strengths and boost your challenge areas with video lessons, quizzes, and answer explanations based on the practice test you took.

NEW!

Build confidence in an SAT Bootcamp

Sign up for four weeks of free, small-group SAT tutoring with Schoolhouse.world, led by high-scoring students who know the test.

Have some fun with it

Turn practice into a healthy habit with the Question of the Day. Earn badges ... and bragging rights!

Practice matters—and it pays off. Students who complete 1, 2, or 3 or more full-length practice tests score on average about 25, 45, and 60 points higher, respectively, than students who don't take any.

Want to learn more about how to practice and prepare?
Visit sat.org/practice.

